

Aiki-Kai Australia

Sugano Shihan's
Aikido Winter School
Monday 5 to Saturday 10
July 2010

6 days of intensive training with Sugano Shihan, 8th Dan

Once again the Gold Coast has been chosen as the location for Winter School. Previous attendees will remember how pleasant the climate is here during winter and will look forward to the training. Classes will be run by Sugano Shihan and Senior Instructors. These national events are an important part of the training experience and we encourage all students of Aikido to attend.

Training : Tallebudgera Recreation Centre
Gold Coast Highway Tallebudgera.

Accomm. : The bulk of the accommodation is at Tallebudgera but for those who miss out there are plenty of alternatives close by which you will have to arrange for yourself.

Registration

On Sunday 4th July the registration desk will be set up to the left of the main entrance from 10am - 6pm. For late arrival please note this on registration form and we will endeavor to have someone meet you at the front to let you in and take you to your accommodation.

Accommodation and Meals

As previous winter school attendees know accommodation is shared in bunk rooms with up to 6 beds per room. Each room has its own shower and toilet facilities. All meals are provided including morning and afternoon tea as part of the accommodation package. There is no refund for meals not taken. Please advise of any special dietary needs.

Please note, registration for accommodation WILL NOT be taken after 10th of May 2010 This date is when final numbers for those staying the camp must be presented.

People only training and not staying on site must pay an entry fee of $4-00 per day visited. Please add this to the training fee.

Transport

You will need to make your own transport arrangements. Gold Coast Airport is about 20 minutes south along the Gold Coast Highway, and there are busses that run along the highway which go right past the front entrance to the camp. There are of course taxis at the airport.
