

Tenchi Farm Event

Tenchi Farm will host an after Summer School event from Monday afternoon – Thursday morning, 15th-18th of January.

It will be chance to unwind, train in the stunning 40 mat dojo and spend time with Aikido friends in a beautiful nature setting.

There will a class with Tony Smibert Shihan 11am Tuesday and Wednesday with opportunities to practice with other senior teachers TBC.

Tony Sensei has also offered an art class Wednesday afternoon sketching the beautiful Tasmanian landscape at the nearby Huntsman Lake.

Other activities available are nature walks with Martin, a mountain training session, kayaking, out door baths and sauna.

Catering will be communal style food preparation and dining in the alfresco camp kitchen with food provided.

There is plenty of room for BYO camping and sleeping in the dojo is an option - some mattresses are available , BYO sleeping bags.

There are two cabins available and two bedrooms in the house.

Bathroom facilities are shared.

Cost

Training: $50 per day or $120 for the event. Tenchi activities included. This also includes camping and sleeping in the dojo options. BYO gear.

Catering: Contribution- $50 per day/ $150 for entire event.

Total training and food: $270.

Cabins and rooms in the house: $200 for three nights. All linen provided.

Space is limited so please book early.

Please book or let us know as early as possible about your interest for planning.

Bookings and queries can be made by emailing

tenchi.farm@bigpond.com

Or calling Bodhi on - 0409695321

Please see below link

<https://tenchifarm.com.au/>